

What can we find in Sevillian downtown surroundings?

From Palacios Malaver Street, just walking, you will access to most emblematic monumental and artistic set. Graceful surprises due to other non so famous places, but very attractive for visitors. For instance:

In five minutes:

- To north, Macarena Arch and Basílica, Cinco Llagas Hospital (nowadays Parliament of Andalusia), and almohade wall.
- To South: Encarnación Square with a vanguards and huge architecture missed with traditional manners.
- To West: San Clemente Monastery and Isla Mágica, amusement park, for unforgettable memories in youngest people.
- To East, you will see an unbelievable grid of streets with lots of churches, such as San Luis de los Franceses, Santa Marina, San Marcos, San Román and San Julián.

In 10 minutes:

- To South, Duke Square with molls like El Corte Inglés, La Campana and Sierper and Tetuán Streets, shopping places where you will see different monuments.
- To West: San Lorenzo Square with Gran Poder Basílica and San Lorenzo church. Have a look to one of most famous Sevillian restaurants (Eslava) and other bars and pubs, even a vanguards theatre, La Imperdible.

In 15 minutes:

- To South, Salvador Square, as that Basilica there located, recently restored, get more beauty. Square surrounded by local building, another typical place to drink and eat. Closely, the Town Hall, plateresc style, the former prison, where Cervantes was "invited", and San Francisco Square, where you will delight a beautiful sight of La Giralda.
- To West: Museo Square where you will get the Fine Arts Museum, a beautiful sample of the best Spanish Baroque painters.

- To East: Santa Justa Railways Station with commuters and high speed trains.

In 20 minutes:

-

To South: Cathedral, Indias Archive, Reales Alcázares, Archbishop Palace and Santa Cruz neighbourhood. That's the main touristic focus.

- To West: Triana, the neighbourhood where the door is marked by the Triana bridge, the most famous one in Seville. There, you will delight with very typical streets, river walks and pubs.
  - Also in west, but at the other river side, the Arenal neighbourhood, because former sand located there because of Guadalquivir river. In the centre of this neighbourhood is the Bullfighter Arena, named La Maestranza, one of the most appreciated bullfighter arenas.

In 25 minutes:

- to South, Alfonso XIII hotel, Real Fábrica de Tabacos, now University, San Fernando Street, with the expensive restaurant Oriza in the Murillo gardens, beautiful place between Reales Alcázares and Santa Cruz neighbourhood.

As you see, Malaver 23 is appropriate place to see the best in the city.

&lt;&lt; Previous \(Alameda - San Luis Neighbourhood\)